

Make a difference this summer and spring with your colleagues

As the days get longer and the weather brightens, it's a great time to come together with your colleagues and make a real impact. Our Spring and Summer Office Fundraising Pack is designed to help you turn seasonal activities into vital support.

Inside, you'll find practical, easy-to-run ideas to suit every workplace, from spring bake sales and ice cream trolleys to outdoor cricket games, summer picnics, and charity sports days. Whether your team is in the office, hybrid, or fully remote, there's something for everyone to enjoy and take part in.

So gather your team, choose an idea that fits your workplace and together, we can help fund the research that will one day cure Parkinson's.
